

OpenLM installs the LightTPD web server as part of the OpenLM Server installation.

LightTPD is configured as a Windows Service and starts up with the machine.

The use of web servers such as Apache or IIS or others is also supported.

For more information on IIS - please read this article.